

Objective

- Following task framework
- Following TDD
- Following git - sub taskwise commits, Meaningful commit messages
- Following js clean code checklist
- Using mobx
- Using styled components

Features

- User should be able to apply addition, subtraction, multiplication, division, percentile on two or more numbers
- User should be able to clear all the input by using “C” operator
- User should be able to delete only one character by using “Del” operator
- User should be able to enter decimal point numbers using “.” input
- User should be able to see his previous input and calculated output when click on the “=” operator